Col. W. J. Green, at Lillington, said: "As for protecting American labor and American manufacturing, I utterly repudiate and dispise."

The appointment of Hon. Charles Price for this city has been changed. He will speak here on Monday night, the 16th of October.

It is conceeded that Maj. Price is the finest speaker canvassing the state during the present campaign, and all who miss hearing him will long regret it.

Hon. D. L. Russell and R. H. Lyon will address the citizens of Brunswick county, on Tuesday night next. Every body and his friends should turn out and hear these distinuished gentlemen.

Let every poor man's child be educated, is the policy of W. P. Canaday. He is in favor of the national government furnishing the money to educate our poor children. Mr. Green opposes this policy, he don't want universal education.

William P. Canaday is in favor of educating the people. He wants to see every man's child thoroughly educated, and if he is elected to congress he will support a bill appropriating money to run the public schools of the state at least eight months in a year.

William P. Canaday is in favor of protecting American labor and American manufactures. He is opposed to putting our mechanics on a par with the pauper labor of Europe; and being a mechanic himself he will always labor for the elevation of his class of people.

Mr. Green says, "as for protecting American labor and American manufactures, he utterly repudiates and declines." Mechanics, do you see the difference between the two men? A vote for Canaday is a vote for the elevation of a mechanic. A vote for Green is a vote for an aristocrat, who has no sympathy for you.

W. J. Green said at Jacksonville that he voted against the Prohibition bill, We can prove by the official records that he did not vote on the question at all. The poll books show that Mr. Green did not vote for or against the bill; he dodged the question. Nor is this all; he has never cast a vote in this congressional district, so we are reliably informed. He wants to represent a people that he has voted with. At the last election he was not even a citizen of the district. At the time of his nomination he did not know twenty men in this district outside of Cumberland county. The other day in traveling from Fayetteville, where he now resides, to Lillington, some twenty-five miles, he got lost within fifteen miles of Fayetteville, so ignorant of the public roads of the neighborhood; and yet he aspires to represent this district. The people want a man in Congress who is well acquainted with the people and their necessities.

HON. CHAS. PRICE.

The gentleman above named will address the people at the following times and places:

Beaufort, Carteret county, Monday, October 9th.

Sanders' store, Carteret county, Tuesday, October 10th.

Sneed's Ferry, Onslow county, Wednesday, October 11th.

Richlands, Onslow county, Thursday, October, 12th.

Bannerman's Bridge, Pender county, Friday, October, 13th.

Smithville, Brunswick county, Saturday, October 14th.

Chadbourn's, Columbus county, Monday, October 16th.

Wilmington, at night, Monday, October 16th.

Point Caswell, Pender county, Tuesday, October 17th.

Shade Wooten's store, Columbus county, Wednesday, October 18th.

Bladenboro, Bladen county, Thursday, October 19th.

Carthage, Moore county, Friday, October 20th.

Lillington, Harnett county, Saturday, October 21st.

Sanford, Monday, October 23d.

Everybody should turn out and hear Mr. Price. He is one of the ablest speakers in North Carolina, and those who desire to be thoroughly posted should attend his appointments.

In yesterday's issue of the Star we read that the Democratic speakers in the Fifth ward meeting were interrupted by Republicans. The only interruptions we heard came from Democratic working men, who persisted in asking the speakers questions, and laughing at the claims put forth by the speakers, why working men should support the Democratic ticket.

The Star local does not mention the disgraceful conduct of one of the city policemen who, sent there to preserve order, had to be restrained by his Captain from committing a breach of the peace.

Whatever interruptions occurred were made by white working men, who had a right to ask the speaker questions. These gentlemen came over to make votes, and if unable to answer simple questions it is their fault, not the people's.

The liberals did not open their meeting until the advertised programme of the Democrats had been filled, and their speakers had left the ground

We have inquired and can say authoritatively that there was no effort on the part of either Republican or Liberals to interfere with the meeting during its progress. After the advertised speakers had finished Mr. King was called for, and made a short, pithy speech, which was decidedly more in accord with the sentiments of the entire crowd than that of the Democrats, There was no interruption of the meet- for which Republicans or Liberals are in any way responsible.

Cumberland County Liberal Convention.

This convention convened on the 30th of Sept. brought out the best ticket ever submitted to the good people of that county. With such men as Powers, Blocker, Lutterloh, Perry and others, the ticket will be elected by 500 majority, and ought to be; the county will then have good representatives in the Legislature and faithful county officers. With such men as Guthrie heading the ticket and with the county nominees we have no fear of the result

Special Telegram from Coke to Kingsbury.

Dear Kingsbury, you are entitled to a position on Jarvis's staff for the faithful manner in which you are obeying orders Nos. 1 and 2. You shall have it, and then you will be called Kurnel Kingsbury. Go on, my dear boy. On the 7th you shall have your Kurnel's commission.

"There is literally an interregnum at Washington. Only two members of the cabinet are on hand."—Star.

Will the Star be fair and state that Gov. Jarvis and all the state officials have been absent from Raleigh ever since the campaign opened in July last, doing nothing but making political speeches.

The Democratic party have assessed the officers and employes at the penitentiary, the Insane Asylum, the Deaf and Dumb Asylums, and all the candidates for offices five per cent. Don't forget this, fellow-citizens, they pay high salaries so they assess them for campaign purposes.

No one expected Georgia to go any way but Democratic. It has been giving 100,000 majority. The majority this time was reduced to about 50,000. We look upon this as a grand victory.

WORKING MEN READ.

Policy, Hypocracy, Sham.

From Friday's issue of the Star we learn that the young men's club passed a resolution to keep open a book for enrolling the names of working men out of employment for the purpose of procuring them something to do.

We presume this action of the club was stimulated by the reception the "hard fisted" gave their speakers in the Fifth Ward Wednesday night, and if the blooded y. m. d. c. think by adopting this plan they can save a vote, we can assure them they now, as they always have heretofore, underate white working men's sense.

This can be readily seen by the number of names they enroll. We venture to say that there will not appear on their book between now and election day, the name of one working man who has any self respect or character.

The letter of Mr. M. E. Robbins in another column will show working men whether they desire to help them or to catch their votes. Why do they wait until one month of election day to show their appreciation of the working men.

How many working men attend their meetings?

Why does Senator Ransom fix the value of a days work in North Carolina at 75 cents and write to the government that labor, which everywhere else is paid $1.50 a day for, can be had in his state for that amount.

Let every working man starve rather than be bought by such a contemptible trick. Let these white handed gentry see that you are men, not beggars. This book plan is an insult to your manhood, and the working man who is lost to all sense of self-respect as to allow his name to go on it, ought to be tabooed by his fellows.

This shows their opinion of you, they think you are for sale, they have failed to intimidate you, now they want you to sell your political birth right for a mess of pottage.

Read the names of the men who called and organized that meeting and you will see what it is done for—not one mechanic among them.

Read Mr. Robbins' letter, and act like men.

Vance to Ransom.

Vance sends greeting to Ransom: I cannot get any one to tell my dirty stories; the people are tired of me, what shall I do, Matt?

Ransom to Vance—I find it the same way. I believe all the people have turned d—d fools and joined the liberal party. The fact is, Vance, Tom Jarvis and prohibition, and his corrupt administration, have killed the Democratic party.

Zeb Vance—that is so, Matt, but what shall we do?

Ransom—Obey Coke's order No. 1. Every man must commence at once; the order must be carried out, if lying will not rally the people, then I can't get back to the Senate.

Vance—Well, Matt, I am an old hand at that business. I have taken the button a great many times, and if I don't win this time it will be the first lying race I ever lost. The people must be fooled, and I am just the Zeb to do it.

WILMINGTON, N. C., Oct. 6, '82.

EDITOR POST:—I see by a card published in the Democratic press that they propose getting employment for working men who need it. Now I desire to show that the terms on which men are to hold the employment they now have, is by voting the Democratic ticket. I attended the Liberal meeting held in the Fifth ward, and was outspoken in expressing my opinion of the truth of the Liberal's indictment of the bourbon bosses. When I went to my work I was informed by my employer that my services were no longer required, though the fall business had just commenced, and I had plenty to do. I appeal to my fellow workingmen to stand up against this tyranny and intimidation. Every employer has in his service several colored men, but he does not discharge them. It is the working white men they are after.

GREENSBORO, Oct. 3, 1882.

The Republicans of Guilford county met in convention Saturday, September 9th, and put in nomination the following ticket:

Senate—A S Holton.
House—I F Davis, J S Morrow.
Treasurer—Joseph C Causey.
Surveyor—W S Bowman.
Coroner—D C Linville.
Sheriff—T M Stafford.

No nomination was made for clerk of the court or register of deeds, as a majority of the delegates thought it inadvisable to do so, but left them open for any independent candidate to take advantage of. M.

Capt. J. A. McMillan.

This gentleman is one of the most faithful men Duplin county has ever produced. He has never been found wanting when his county called for any sacrifice at his hands for the good of her people. We believe if the liberals and Republicans will insist on him running for the Senate he can easily be elected. The people have perfect confidence in his integrity and ability, and we hope he will consent to run.

A Card of Thanks.

I desire in behalf of myself and the balance of the crew of the Frying Pan Shoals Light Ship, to return thanks to Captain Gabrielson, of the Revenue Cutter Colfax, for his many courtesies extended to us, and to congratulate the service upon having such a faithful, efficient and gallant commander, and hope that the service and the country may long profit by his seamanship and ability.

J. H. DOSHER,
Keeper Frying Pan Light Ship.

Lookout, for it is rumored that the negroes are going to rise. This is campaign year, and all kinds of lies must be told to scare the white people and make them unite against the negro. We are certainly surprised at Bernard for allowing such infamy published in his paper, under the circumstances that the colored people have always supported his paper. Probably a third of its circulation is among the colored people, and yet he allows them to be slandered in its columns.

Democrats in Virginia have made application to the United States Court for United States Supervisors of Elections. This shows that the law is intended to give a fair election to those in the minority. The Democratic poll holders have committed frauds on the ballot box, this has been admitted time and again by the Wilmington Star, and now the Republicans are thinking about getting United States Supervisors to protect them from frauds, the Star raises a howl. Is it because the Star desires the frauds of 1880 repeated in 1882? We do not think so; but its course is likely to mislead its party friends and encourage them to again count out Republicans. We desire to call the Star's attention to the Halifax frauds, and the conviction of the criminals, and to say that should the poor men who are registrars and poll holders in this district, allow themselves to be used again as tools to commit the dirty work of Coke and his corrupt gang, they will be prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law.

We simply ask for a free vote and a fair count, equality and justice; this every fair-minded man is willing to give, including the editor and proprietor of the Star, and we ask that paper to come out now before the election, and put itself on record in favor of a fair election. Will you do it, gentlemen? We will await your answer.

SMITHVILLE, N. C. Oct. 4th 1882.

Editor Post.

In pursuance of a call of the Executive Committees of Bladen and Brunswick counties, delegates from each county assembled at North West, Brunswick county, Sept. 30th 1882, for the purpose of electing a nominee for the Republican party to represent the district for the next two years in the Senate of N. C.

Upon motion, John Newell Esq., was made permanent chairman and Chas. McDonald, sec'y. The nomination of a candidate next being in order, upon motion of a Brunswick delegate, Robt. H. Lyon of Bladen, was made the nominee by a unanimous vote. No further business being before the house the following resolutions were offered, received, and adopted. viz:

Whereas, It is understood that Robt. H. Lyon Esq., the liberal sentiment of the district for the Senate. And whereas this convention has confidence in his ability in his peculiar fitness to represent the people of the district, and in his sincere devotion to the principles and purposes of the present coalition against the Democratic party.

And whereas the Republicans of this Republican district are willing to show by endorsing a liberal for the Senate that they are willing to accept the coalition movement in good faith, thereupon resolved that we endorse Robt. H. Lyon Esq. as a candidate for the Senate in the counties of Bladen and Brunswick.

Republicans of Bladen and Brunswick, let us pull together; let every man put his shoulder to the wheel, and let us show to other counties in the State that our intention is, as far as in us lieth, to carry the election of Duckery, Canaday, Lyon, Darby and even every county officer to victory.

CHAS. MCDONALD, Secy.

Ah! Indeed.

Senator Ransom was wearing a yellow calico shirt.—Morning Star

Ah, indeed. Is Senator Ransom any better than many a hardworking, honest man, who has not got anything better than a yellow calico shirt to wear, that it should be bruited about as an extraordinary piece of condescension for him to wear a calico shirt Just think how he will laugh in his sleeve when arrayed in spotless linen and strutting his grandiloquent swagger in Washington, thinking how he "whipped up" the "poor white trash" in North Carolina by making it conspicuous that he was enough like them to descend to the wearing of a yellow calico shirt.

LOCAL CHIPS.

Does your new house suit you.

Register! Register!! Register!!!

Our streets are getting dry and dusty.

Some very fine New River Oysters are now coming in.

Pender County Superior Court convenes on the 18th of December.

It seems to be a hard matter for the Democrats of the state to get organized.

The Passport has been thoroughly overhauled and is now ready for towing.

Don't forget that if you want to vote at this election that you must Register.

Let every Republican and Liberal see to it that his name is properly registered.

The Daily Review has been moved to new quarters on Market between Front and Second streets.

Dr. Deems lectured in Raleigh for the benefit of the building fund of the Edenton street M. E. Church on Thursday evening last.

Our Jewish friends gave a complimentary ball at Germania Hall on Thursday night last, in honor to Mr. and Mrs. Meeks, and Mr. and Mrs. Kasprowicz.

The old shingle house in the rear of the McRee house, on Second bet. Market and Princess streets, and the old "poor house" both of which are in a very bad condition, have been ordered to be torn down by the city authorities.

The Democrats had a speaking at the Oaks on Wednesday night last, where there was gathered together about 150 Democrats, 20 Republicans and 25 Liberals; and yet the Review says there was a goodly crowd present.

Messrs. R. J. Scarborough & Co., are fitting up the store on the south side of Market street, formerly occupied by Mr. B. Thorburn, and will in a few days open a first class grocery store. Success to you Robert.

CITY ITEMS.

Look to It!

Remember that an entire new Registration is necessary this election. The last registration will not answer for the election in November next. The last election was for City Aldermen when a different set of books were used, and now for the November election another set of books are to be used. Look to it, Republicans and liberals, and see that your names are properly registered.

John Has Got It!

If you want good oysters, or a good meal or a good—well, you know what—just step over the way to John's, at the North Carolina House, and you can get it. John keeps everything in first class order, and if he is not present himself, he has "A Poppe," who will attend to your every want with pleasure.

We publish below the bids for the work for improving the Cape Fear River. The bids on this work were: R. Moore, Mobile, Ala., 17 3-10 cts. per cubic yard. National Dredging Co., Wilmington, Del., 16 7-10 cts. per cubic yard. N. Y. Steam Dredging Co., (Ferris) 17¾ cts. per cubic yard. Geo. G. Forbes & Co., Balto., 18 cts. per cubic yard.

The National Dredging Company, of Wilmington, Del., got the work at 16 7-10 cts. They are to commence work in January.

Judge Meares and his Criminal Court.

Judge Meares decided on last Friday in open court, that there should be at least one distinction between his court and John Robinson's circus; so when the audience in court applauded at the rendition of a verdict of acquittal in a case which there seem to have been a feeling of general interest, he sent the applauders, or so many as he could identify, to jail. John Robinson's clown laughs at applause. How things do differ some times.

In Memoriam.

Joseph and Fannie Sampson, recently deceased, were natives of Sampson county and resided near Clinton all their lives.

At a very early age Joseph connected himself with the Missionary Baptist Church and lived a consistent christian life Scripture years, holding the office of Deacon at the time of his death. His death, though sudden, was not unexpected, for he had been complaining for several days. He was so impressed with the certainty of a sudden dissolution that he called his son William to him previous to his death and charged him to care for his wife, Fannie, that she might not suffer in this life, and was constantly engaged in exhorting his family to pray and advising his sons and daughters the necessity of raising up their children in the fear of God.

Fannie Sampson lived the life of a christian, devoted to her church and her Lord, she was ever ready to devote her time to service. Her sickness was of short duration, as three days had passed from the commencement, she fell asleep in Jesus.

The subjects of this sketch were parents of fourteen children and grand parents to eighty children.

Asleep in Jesus, blessed sleep,
From which none of us wake to weep,
A calm and undisturbed repose,
Unbroken by the least of woes.

A devoted son,
M. J. SAMPSON.

The Fifth Ward Meeting.

Wednesday, pursuant to advertisement, the Democrats held a meeting in the Fifth Ward. Messrs. John D. Bellamy, A. G. Ricaud and John C. Davis, spoke, after being asked to divide time with the Liberals and Republicans and refusing to do so.

Mr. Ricaud led off in a kind of sing-song revised history of the Republican party, and in the course of his remarks endeavored to introduce what to him might have been a joke, but, which to the audience seemed void of humor or application. It commenced in China went over to Ireland, and then, like John Kelly, got mixed up with the Republican party. As Mr. R. turned over the leaves of his little speech we heard an aged colored woman remark: "Dat white man is done got a song book and is singing."

Mr. R. was frequently interrupted by the working men in the audience plying him with very pertinent questions which he failed to answer.

Mr. R. was followed by Mr. Davis, who started off on a regular biographical sketch of himself presumably; giving his opinions or experiences of how young men should go through the world and fight the battle of life, after which he drifted into politics and pitched into the Republican party and Col. Canaday in regular Websterian style. "The boy stood on the burning deck" fashion.

Then followed John D. Bellamy, Jr., who came into the ring seconded by a policeman in full uniform who introduced him as only a policeman of his ability knows how: Mr. B. came forward as smilingly as if he saw a fee in the far distance, and at once opened on the grand old Democratic principles which Horace Greeley so ably represented; from these somewhat attenuated theories he branched off on the tariff, and showed Morrill of Maine, John C. Calhoun, Madison, Jefferson, and all the other great tariff authorities that they had all been in error, he did not say anything about pea-nuts at 62½ cents a bushel or rice at 3¢ cent, but dealt in heavy commodities such as steel rails, &c. But anyone could see that John D's. heart was not in the thing.

After Mr. Bellamy had concluded, the policeman above mentioned, no doubt feeling dissatisfied with the manner in which the regular speakers had presented their case, mounted the stand and in a flowing manner and ornate style, gave his audience a logical, rhetorical and finished disquisition. His flashes of wit were only equalled by the scintillations of lantern light from his brass buttons. This exuberant fancy brought delight to the heart and a smile to the face of all the small boys who heard him. We commend him to the notice of the Police Committee of the Board. He is out of his sphere, such talent should be recognized, and such ardent zeal rewarded. The Captain on duty ought to mention him in his report—particularly the zeal he afterwards displayed in wanting to break the peace which he is paid and was sent there to preserve.

With the exception of Mr. Bellamy, we failed to hear either of the gentlemen introduce a live issue, and they soon found that in going into the Fifth Ward they were in the wrong pew, which fact Mr. Ricaud acknowledged by saying he would be agreeably surprised if he made one vote.

After the speakers, as advertised, had spoken, the Liberals and Republicans held a meeting on the same ground, and though the hour was late, the crowd all remained and judging by the cheering and enthusiasm, as compared to the Democratic meeting, were much more agreeably entertained.

Mr. E. H. King spoke for the Liberals and showed the working men where their interests lay in the coming election. He was repeatedly cheered by the crowd and was compelled to remount the stand and continue, twice after ending his speech.

He was followed by Mr. Taylor in a speech addressed to the colored voters of the ward.

The old banner ward is all right for the Liberal-Republican ticket this time.

Board of Aldermen.

The Board of Aldermen met in regular monthly session on last Monday afternoon.

The committee on Public Buildings reported progress on the sale of the Ninth Street Bucket House.

The committee on Fire Department reported that the electric alarm was working satisfactorily.

The mayor stated that complaint had been made to him that Mr. W. Latimer was encroaching upon Northrop's Alley with his wall. The City Surveyor had made a survey of the premises, and submitted plans showing that there was no encroachment by Mr. Latimer.

The committee on Public Buildings reported having given contract for repairs to the Little Giant engine house to Mr. J. H. Hanby at his bid of $225.

Application of Messrs. Chess Carley & Co., for license to sell petroleum oil, was referred to the committee on Fire Department.

Application of the Howard Relief Fire Engine Company for repairs to their engine house was received.

A motion to refer the communication to the committee on Public Buildings was lost.

The report of the Chief of the Fire Department was received and ordered on file.

In regard to the building on lot in rear of J. D. Sneijer' saloon, reported by the Chief of Fire Department as dangerous, on motion the mayor was instructed to carry out the ordinances of the city relating to such cases.

A communication relative to the old Poor House being dangerous was referred to the Chief of Police and Chief of the Fire Department.

Alderman Chadbourn, Special Committee on purchasing the Market House, made his report of the purchase of the property.

Alderman Huggins, Bowden and Aldermen, made an unqualified protest against the purchase of the property, and Mayor Smith wished to be placed on record as partially agreeing with the protestants.

Alderman Worth moved that the mayor be directed to take the necessary steps towards completing the purchase of the Market House and take possession of the property. Adopted.

The report of the Hospital Committee was received for the month of August showing that the city's part of the expenses was $93. Ordered on file.

Adjourned.

There is to be a dedication of St. Luke's A. M. E. Z. Church on Sunday, the 8th day of October, at 10 o'clock A. M. at which many of our friends will be present. If agreeable, we should be glad to have you attend.

Criminal Court.

This tribunal convened here on Monday last, with Judge Meares, presiding. The following cases have been disposed of during the week:—

State vs. Henry Walker, larceny. Not guilty.

State vs. Jas. Jones, et. al., disturbing a religious congregation. Continued by consent.

Why Is It?

We would like to ask of the city authorities why it is the street lamps on the corner of McRae street, and the one in McCumber alley are not lighted more than once a week? We have been informed that this has been the case for some time past. Will our city fathers attend to this?

Personal.

Rev. Jos. Wilson and Messrs. C. H. Robinson, John Colville and John McLaurin, who have been in attendance upon the Presbyterian Synod, at Asheville, have returned home.

Rev. Thomas M. Ambler, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, has returned home

Liberal State Ticket.

Nominated by the Liberal Convention, held at Raleigh, June 7th, 1882, and endorsed by the Republican State Convention of June 14th, 1882

FOR CONGRESSMAN AT LARGE,
OLIVER H. DOCKERY,
Of Richmond.

FOR SUPREME COURT,
GEORGE N. FOLK,
Of Caldwell.

FOR JUDGES OF THE SUPERIOR COURT
O. C. POOL,
of Pasquotank.
JOHN A. MOORE,
Of Halifax.
FRANCIS. H. DARBY,
Of New Hanover.
W. A. GUTHRIE,
Of Cumberland.
L. F. CHUCHILL,
Of Rutherford.
LEONIDAS C. EDWARDS,
Of Granville.

FOR CONGRESS, THIRD DISTRICT,
WILLIAM P. CANADAY,
Of New Hanover.

Bishop J. W. Hood supports the liberal coalition movement, and thinks it is to the interast of the state that be successful.

Proff. Jos. Price the great colored orator of North Carolina, one of the ablest Republican speakers in the south is supporting the liberal coalition ticket.

Hon. Kenneth Raynor anxiously supports the liberal coalition ticket, and says, tell all my old friends in North Carolina to stand together this time for the good of my dear old mother state.

Ex Secretary of the United States Treasury, Boutwell, of Mass., is very emphatic in his support of the Liberal movement in the south, he says he is anxious to see the liberals and Republicans all over the south coalide and run candidate for the various offices.

Hon. Frank Hatton, First Assistant Postmaster General, one of the most astute politicians in the country, and the best assistant Postmaster General the country has ever had, is outspoken in his advocacy of the liberal movement in this state, as well as the whole south.

General Green B. Raum, the commissioner of Internal Revenue, says that every true Union man and Republican in North Carolina should unite with the liberal Democrats in carrying the state in the interest of peace, prosperity and happiness of all the people.

HEADQ'RS. DEMOCRATIC COM.
RALEIGH, N. C.

Coke, chairman, to the Democratic press of the state: The liberal coalition party is gaining thousand of votes every day. We have used every means to stop the liberal independent Democrats from growing, but all to no purpose; there is but one way left, namely: to lie it out of existence. Therefore I have issued order No. 1, "to commence lying and to lie like h—l." "The Democratic editor who tells the biggest lie shall have a place on Governor Jarvis's staff and a rattle besides.

Special telegram from Bennett to Coke: I am beat by thirty thousand majority unless something is done at once. Coke to Bennett: I have just issued order No. 1 and 2 to all bourbon Democratic candidates, and to the press, to commence a systematic course of lying, and sticking to it. And to swear that all the liberals are returning to the old bourbon lines, and to get out independent straightout Republicans to run for office against the liberal Republican candidates. If this don't help us my, dear Bennett, you are gone. My information from all parts of the state is that Dockery is making a splendid canvass and will beat you at least 80,000; but I hope order No. 1 and 2 will have the desired effect—fool the people and elect you.

Coke to Jarvis: "The Republican are uniting on the liberal movement, what shall we do, dear Tom?" Jarvis to Coke: "Issue order No. 2, send over the state and hire colored and white Republicans to run independent for office. We must have some of the leading Republicans also, and we know our men, and will get them to organize the straightouts; we will compliment these fellows as being the only true Republicans in the state, and when you cannot get them to join the straightout movement for compliments, then give them money. You, my dear Coke, must work this order in conjunction with order No. 1, wherever we can get independent Republicans to run against the regular nominee. We can accomplish fraud by counting an equal number of votes for each, whether Independents receive them or not, and thereby elect our Democratic nominees. Don't you see my dear Coke, how this little game will work?"

COL. I. J. YOUNG

Is making a splendid canvass for the coalition. Speaking every day, and says the state will go 30,000 majority for the liberal ticket.

HON. D. L. RUSSELL.

Everybody knows this gentlemen has been liberal in his views for years and he is to-day doing all he can for the coalition ticket, has been and will continue to make speeches in favor of it.

ANOTHER DEMOCRATIC LIE NAILED-HON. W. A. SMITH.

This gentleman is being quoted by the bourbon press as being against the liberal ticket. We state after a conversation with Col. Smith that he is not fighting our ticket and he will vote for it.

SECRETARY FOLGER.

This gentleman heartily indorses the liberal coalition ticket in North Carolina, and says the good liberal Democrats and Republicans should unite and carry the state by all means; the good citizens of this state can trust such able men as Judge Folger. He always advises for the good of all the people.

HON. JOHN POOL.

This gentleman is an old Republican. The Democratic bourbon press abused him up to 1880, when he came out for Hancock; they changed their tone and could not say enough in his favor. But Mr. Pool to-day supports the liberal coalition ticket, and he says that all good men should stand by it.

MAKE WAY FOR THEM.

Open your ranks, liberals, and take in the recruits as they come. We have never seen an army increase so rapidly as the great liberal coalition party has for the past two weeks. Not a day nor an hour passes but that we hear of hundreds joining in this grand movement; but still we have room for all.

TEN THOUSAND AND STILL THEY COME.

Ten thousand liberal Democrats have joined the great liberal coalition party in the past ten days and still they come. Every county has some, and the most of them have hundreds of them. It looks now as if at least 50,000 white Democrats will join before the election. If it keeps on our majority will be as large as it was against the prohibition bill in 1881.

FRED DOUGLAS, ESQ.

This great colored leader was reported a few days ago, as being against the liberal movement, and the Democratic papers were full of compliments for him; but he has come out squarely for the liberal coalition ticket; and now these same Democratic papers are abusing him, but the world continues to move, and liberalism will surely be victorious.

HON. THOS. SETTLE.

Judge Thomas Settle, who run as the Republican candidate for Governor in 1876, says if he lived now in North Carolina he should vote for the liberal ticket. No man who ever lived in this state is so well beloved by all of our people as Judge Thomas Settle, and his advice will be received and accepted with thanks by every honest Republican in the state.

HON. WM. E. CHANDLER.

This gentleman, who is in President Arthur's cabinet as Secretary of the Navy, desires it understood plainly and distinctly that he is unqualifidly in favor of the liberal movement in the south. He says the better element of the Democratic party should unite with the Republicans and form a great liberal party in the south, that will manage the affairs for the good of all the people, and he wants to see the present coalition ticket elected.

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION OF DUPLIN.

On Saturday last, the Republicans of Duplin county met at the court house in Kenansville, and a grand affair it was, we have never seen one more enthusiastic. The convention endorsed the liberal state and county ticket.

We desire to speak of some of the leaders of the Republican party of that county, who deserve particular mention and thanks at our hands. Messrs. A. J. Stanford, A. R. Middleton, Irvin Beaman, Amos McCullough, H. Williams and others worked like good and faithful Republicans, and they will continue to work for the liberal coalition ticket until the sun goes down on election day.

HON. GEO. C. GORHAM.

This gentlemen is the editor of the National Republican, the organ of the Republican party at the capital, and also the administration, is out in open letter to Mr. C. L. Cooke of the 7th North Carolina District.

Mr. Gorham is one of the ablest and most reliable Republicans in this country, and we hope that Mr. Cooke and all the Republicans in this state will read Mr. Gorham's letter, which we publish in another column. Mr. Gorham takes great interest in the prosperity of the south, and he believes the only way to reclaim the south from bourbon rule is for the Republicans and liberal Democrats to unite and act together, and by such a coalition liberalize public sentiment, and fill the offices with men who will treat all classes of citizens officially alike.

WHAT A CHANGE.

It has always been the thieving Republicans before, but now they say we honor and respect Republicans, but a liberal we have no use for. What a change has come over them. The fact is they see that there is great danger of the bourbons loosing the state, owing to the fact of the coalition, which accounts for their feelings toward the liberals. But they cannot fool Republicans. We know the way we have been abused, slandered and kicked by these same bourbon leading who pretend to have such very high respect for us. We have formed the coalition with the liberal Democrats and we are going to carry the state, and every liberal Democrat who joins the combination will have the same show for the federal and other patronage that the Republicans enjoy. We are living for the future, not for the dead past, and those who are not against us in redeeming the state from the hands of the present thieves shall be treated as friends in the future. It matters not what has been their past record. We can trust any man who refuses to-day the orders of the bourbon bosses.

Such men as Johnston, Price, Cocke, Leach, Devreaux, Cook, Day, Clarke, Darby, Churchell, Folk, York, Edwards, Latham, Stewart, King, Lyons, Bowers, Troy, Respass, Sparrow, Loftin and thousands of young men who are able to lead, and have acted with the Democratic party have now joined hands with the Republican party to redeem the state from the hands of the bourbon leaders, and to run it after it is redeemed for the benefit of all the people. Both Republicans and Democrats can act under this arrangement without any surrender of former principles. They have agreed to act together during this campain for the good of society and the state, just as we would all act together in case the state was invaded by a foreign enemy. Let every true son of North Carolina lay down all prejudice against individuals and act together, and the state will be in honest hands very soon.

STRAIGHTOUTS VS. REPUBLICANS.

Republicans, have you stopped to think of the cause which has so changed the bourbon press toward certain straightout Republicans, and the reason these bourbons are abusing the liberals so unmercifully. If our friends will only stop and consider for a moment they willl surely come at the truth. In the first place they see the only way they can defunct the liberal movement is by patting a few men, whom they have been all their lives abusing, on the back and telling them that they are splendid fellows, and to stand out against the liberals, well knowing by such a course on the part of the Republicans they, the bourbon Democrats can continue in power. In the second place they are abusing the liberals from the fact that they the Democratic press, see the "handwriting on the wall" that through the movement they are about to be hurled from power. We can tell them now that the forty thousand liberal Democrats and the hundred and thirty thousand Republicans are going to stand united like a stonewall, and the old North State will once more arise, and on the 7th day of November and shake off the shackles of bourbonism, radicalism and bossism, and for many years to come the state will be run for the good of the whole people.

THE PRESIDENT and NORTH CAROLINA.

Judge Settle, of North Carolina, and William P. Canaday, the Republican candidate for congress in the third district of that state, returned from New York yesterday on their way home. While in New York they called upon the President in company with George C. Gorham, editor of the National Republican. The President being told that representations had been made to the effect that he was indifferent to the success of the coalition ticket, replied, with much emphasis and energy, that it was wholly unfounded, and that, on the contrary, he was most earnest in the hope of success. He held it to be the ticket of the Republicans, duly endorsed by the Republican convention, and hoped that every Republican would yield it his support. The President was very earnest, and said he desired his approval of the coalition to be plainly understood. He expressed great confidence in the success of the Republican ticket in New York—National Republican.

The President said he wanted it understood, and requested us to say to the Republicans of North Carolina, that he endorsed the liberal coalition ticket and he very particularly desired it elected. The reason why President Arthur was so emphatic about the matter, he heard that he had been misquoted by the enemies of the coalition ticket, as being in favor of the so-called straightouts. We state upon the very best authority, that of the President himself, that the coalition liberal ticket has the undivided support of the Administration.

Coke to Jarvis: "There is great danger of loosing the state, what shall we do?" Jarvis to Coke: "Issue order No. 1 to all candidates and the press, to swear that all the liberals are coming back to their old party, and when they swear to it they must stick to it. We must carry the state at any cost of money and telling of lies. We carried the state before by fraud and we must hold it now by fraud.

PRESIDENT ARTHUR.

Anxious for the Success of the Coalition Ticket in North Carolina.

C. L. COOKE, Esq:

SIR: You have done me the honor to send me your published "card to the voters of the seventh Congressional district of North Carolina," in which you announce yourself as an independent candidate for Congress. My only object in addressing you this public note is to correct an error in your card. You make an appeal to Stalwart Republicans against the coalition ticket and say to them:

I honestly believe that the so-called liberal movement was conceived and organized by that class of men who have induced a few broken-down, disappointed office-seeking Democrats to join them, expressly for the purpose of preventing North Carolina from contributing her influence in furtherance of the nomination of a Stalwart candidate for the Presidency in 1884. They have the affrontery to say to Republicans when they have nominated a bourbon Democratic Ku-Klux sympathizer, "You must vote for the nominee, the administration is in favor of it, and the President authorized me to say that you would never get an office if you didn't." My countrymen, be not deceived by such miserable claptrap. There is no truth in such statements.

Of course you are right in denying that the President has ever authorized any one to say that he would punish voters by non-appointment to office. He does not use the public offices as rewards or punishment. But when you deny the statements that the President is in favor of the coalition nominees, and each of them, you are mistaken. To guide you to a knowledge of the truth in this matter, and that is what I believe you desire, I will say to you that on Saturday, the 23d ult., President Arthur stated to several persons, of whom I was one, at his residence in the city of New York, that he was not only earnesly for the liberal movement in North Carolina, and anxious for the election of the whole coalition ticket (which, of course, includes Dr. York), but that he did not wish his position on the subject to be doubted or misunderstood. This is not, of course, any reason why any voter in North Carolina should support the coalition, but it is a good reason why the weight of President Arthur's name should not be thrown into the scale against it. You would not be a willing party to a fraud, and the information herein conveyed will save you from from the mortification of being an unwilling one. If any voter in North Carolina should desire to know how President Arthur would vote if he was a citizen of state, you can safely assure him that he would vote for the coalition ticket throughout.

As to whether the Republican nominee for the Presidency in 1884 shall be a "Stalwart" of 1880, or an equally reliable friend of equal political rights who was not then so designated, is not now the issue. Whether honest majorities shall be represented in congress and in the next electoral college instead of bourbon minorities is of much greater consequence. The men who stood by Grant in 1880—and I shall always be proud of having been one of them—cannot better exhibit their continued devotion to him than by cooperating heartily and generously with all who will uphold what he then insisted upon, viz: "The right of every citizen to vote just as he pleases, and to have his vote counted just as it was cast." I hope I shall not give offense by expressing the hope that you will yet decide not to aid in the election of the bourbon candidate in your district. You cannot but agree with me that his party in North Carolina can never survive if once the freedom and integrity of the ballot-box can be assured. Dr. York is committed to liberalism, which means fair elections, free schools, home rule, and genuine restoration to the Union. Besides, if you help the free trade Democracy to abolish duties on imports, internal revenue taxation will have to be perpetuated and increased. How can you abolish internal revenue taxes by indirectly aiding a party which is pledged against external taxation? Taxes must come from some source.

Pardon the freedom with which I have replied to the circular you sent me, and believe me to be, very respectfully, yours, GEO. C. GORHAM.

Hon. Geo. C. Gorham is the editor of the National Republican, a paper that has always stood by and defended the Union people of the south, and has from the very first advocated the liberal movement. He has placed every true man in this state under personal obligations to him.

LIBERAL CONVENTION IN SAMPSON.

The liberals held a large and enthusiastic convention on Saturday 30th ult., at Clinton. The court house was crowded—it is said by knowing ones to have been the largest convention ever held in Sampson county by any party. It was presided over by Mr. Clifton Ward, and the following splendid ticket was nominated:

Hon. John Barden for the Senate, Messrs. H. C. Monk and John R. Smith for the House of Representatives, and Calton Sessoms for Register of Deeds.

Resolutions were unanimously adopted endorsing the liberal state ticket, and Mr. William P. Canaday for congress.

We learn that the convention was perfectly harmonious, every man pledging himself to do everyting possible for the success of the state, congressional and county tickets.

The liberal movement in Sampson will carry the county by a large majority. The very best citizens in the county are for the ticket and will stand vigorously by it. Clifton Ward, Carlton Sessoms and the united Republican party of the county will stand by the liberal ticket.

We congratulate our friends in Sampson on the very excellent ticket they have brought out, and we feel perfectly confident the whole ticket will carry the county.

"LORD HAVE MERCY UPON THE MAILS."

Some time ago we published a communication from Kenansville, Duplin county, headed as above. We learn that Mr. C. H. Brown has been charged with the authorship. For the benefit of all concerned, we state most positively, that Mr. Brown was not the author of the communication.

U. S. GRANT.

General U. J. Grant we are informed by good authority, suports the liberal coalition ticket in Virginia and North Carolina. He says that all good liberal men should unite and elect the liberal candidates. We can afford to take the advice of such men as Grant, Arthur, Conkling, Sherman, Fry, Boutwell, Folger, Chandler, Hatton, Cameran, Gorham, New, Settle, Pool, Douglas and Russell, men whom we have trusted and never found to mislead us. They all say vote the liberal coalition ticket.

The Cumberland Convention.

FAYETTEVILLE, N. C.,
September 30th, 1882.

EDITOR POST:—Pursuant to previous announcement the Republicans and liberals of Cumberland county met today in mass convention in the Farmers' Hall, of this town, for the purpose of nominating a county ticket. Great interest was manifested in the convention. Every remote section of the county was well represented from confine to confine, the sons of every gathered to do honor to the occasion. The Fayetteville brass band was in attendance and rendered fine music, which added much to the enthusiasm of the day.

At 12 o'clock m., Capt. Ed. P. Powers (our gallant Ed.) ascended the rostrum and called the vast tumult to order in a few well pointed remarks, and then announced Captain J. S. Leary permanent chairman of the convention and W. G. Perry secretary.

On accepting the chairmanship of convention Captain Leary made a fine speech, replete with encouragement and teeming with brilliant sentiment. He paid a glowing eulogy to the liberal movement, and then declared the convention ready for business.

The following resolution was offered and adopted amid tremendous applause:

Resolved, That we the Republicans and liberals of Cumberland county in convention assembled do hereby indorse Mr. Wm. B. Surles, the independent liberal candidate for the Senate, from the 16th senatorial district of North Carolina, and recoguize in him a true and tried friend of the people, civil liberty and local self government, we will give to him our hearty, free, full and undivided support.

The chairman then introduced Mr. Surles, who came forward and addressed the convention. He said his history was well known, and that he was in full accord with the liberal party, and that he was opposed to bossism and sumptuary laws, and closed by thanking the convention.

The following ticket was then nominated, each candidate making a brief speech of acceptance after his respective nomination.

For the Legislature, E. P. P. Powers and H. J. Williford.

For Sheriff, O. H. Blocker.

For Clerk of Superior Court, T. S. Lutterloh.

For Register of Deeds, W. G. Perry.

For Surveyor, W G Hall.

For Coroner, James Vann.

A motion indorsing Hon. O. H. Dockery and Hon. Wm. P. Canaday was unanimously adopted.

Hon. Stewart Ellison, of Raleigh was then presented to the convention by the chairman. Mr. Ellison's speech was pregnant with words of wisdom and advice. He counselled for harmony, and said that upon the liberal movement depended our success. The speech was preeminent, and won many new admirers for the distinguished visitor.

Mr. John H. Whiteman, of Wilmington also made a speech in his usual graceful style. Mr. Whiteman is a gifted speaker and zealous advocate of liberal Republicanism.

No other business appearing the convention adjourned sine die.

J. S. LEARY, Chairman.

Fashionable Wedding.

Editor Post:

In the midst of the campaign let me beg space enough in your columns to announce to his many friends the marriage of Mr. Samuel Lawrence, a prominent colored politician of this place, to Miss Clarice Bryan, one of the belles of county. The ceremony took place on Wednesday evening last, at 8:30 o'clock at the A. M. E. Zion Church, Elder Thurber officiating. The attendants were Mr. R. S. Taylor and Miss Cora Cherry (sister of Mrs. R. E. Green of New York City), Mr. Samuel Hill, of the Wilson Times, and Miss Louisa Cherry, Mr. L. T. Boyd and Miss Carrie Mahson, of Wilmington, Mr. Edward Clay and Miss Georgia Matheson. The Church was filled with friends both white and colored, of the contracting parties.

After the ceremony, an elegant repast was laid at the residence of the bride. There were many handsome wedding presents.

MR. EDITOR:—There was a rousing Republican meeting held on the 9th inst. at Angola, Onslow county. The crowd was large and attentive throughout. Messrs. R. King, Murrell and P. W. Williams made interesting and convincing addresses, advocating the liberal movement as being the best and surest way of defeating the bourbon Democrats in the next election.

Mr. Eli Shiver, the regular Democratic nominee, being present was given an opportunity to deliver himself. All that he said was easily answered to the satisfaction of all present, judging from the spirit of the crowd, and the statements of man liberals as well as Republicans. Onslow county will roll up a large vote for Hon. W. P. Canaday, and the whole ticket. Be assured Onslow will do her full duty.

Strong resolutions were introduced by the writer to the effect that Messrs. P. W. Williams and A. Murrell be authorized to organize Republican and liberal meetings throughout the county, and that the voters of Onslow county pledge themselves to work fraternally for the success of their friend, Hon. W. P. Canaday, and for the benefit of Republican party. The resolutions were unanimously adopted. By request of the meeting I send the report for publication in the Post.

Respectfully,
R. KIRBY, Secretary.

Brunswick County Republican Convention.

In pursuance of previous notice given the Republicans of Brunswick county met in convention at Town Creek for the purpose of nominating county officers, this Sept. 28th, 1882.

The chairman, E. W. Taylor, called the convention to order, making a few appropriate remarks suitable to the occasion.

On motion, L. P. Swain was elected secretary.

On motion a committee on credentials was appointed, namely, Chas. Mc Donald, Peter Tucker, John K. Willis, D. R. Walker and B. J. Waters.

While this committee was in consultation, M. W. H. Branch, being loudly called for came forward and made a ringing Republican speech, touching upon the leading issues of the present campaign, dealing heavy blows to the Bourbon Democracy. His speech had good effect and will produce much on the 7th day of November next.

The committee on credentials then returned reporting no contest for seats in the convention.

On motion of D. R. Walker, the convention then proceeded to nominate the following named gentlemen for representative and county offices, viz:

Wm. Grisset, House of Representatives; E. W. Taylor, Sheriff; L. P. Swain, Clerk of the Court; R. M. Wescott, County Treasurer; H. K. Ruark, Register of Deeds; G. W. Grissett, Co. Surveyor; Jas. Tharp, Coroner.

The above nominations were ratified unanimously amid great and earnest enthusiasm fore-casting a rousing and a glorious victory in November.

On motion the convention resolved that the Wilmington POST publish the proceedings of this convention, and that the Raliegh Times be requested to publish the same.

On motion the convention then adjourned amid the greatest enthusiasm.

E. W. Taylor, Chm'n.
L. P. Swain, Sec'y.

Mr. Editor:

Hon. Charles Price spoke here on the 28th ult. His speech had a fine effect, and did much good for the liberal cause. I had intended to report his speech in full, but its length and the various subjects discussed would make my communication too lengthy, besides I could in no wise do him justice.

It may be sufficnt to say that his arraignment of the Democratic party was severe though true and deserved by that party. Mr. Price is a fine speaker, combining good delivery, finence, sound logic and honesty of expression.

He spoke two hours to about two hundred people, and won the applause of his audience. M.

CAINTUCK, Pender Co, Sept, 6, 1882.

Mr. Editor:

There is a boy nine years old, the son of Daniel Collins, by the name of Alkiah, has invented a plan to raise fish in a glass jar. He put two young black fish an inch long in a glass jar on the 1st of June, and they measure to-day 6½ inches. His process was very simple, taking out each morning and putting in fresh water, feeding with bread crumbs.

Although prices of eggs are high the hens of this section, (though noted for eggs) have stayed proceedings until the weather gets cooler.

Everything quiet here, the political cauldron just commenced simmering.

With much success to your valuable paper, I remain,

Yours very truly,
H. C. LEWIS.

Every Republican in North Carolina should remember that the President of the United States, who is and has always been a true Republican, wants the coalition ticket in the Old North State elected. This we state upon authority.

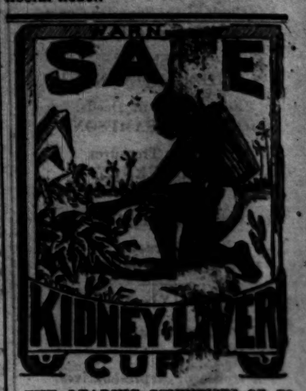
Three Car Loads.

Messrs. F. & H. Fries, of Salem, N. C., who propose to make an exhibition of Forsyth county, in the way of relics, curiosities, minerals, manufactured goods and machinery, have succeeded in getting together a large and varied collection.

They will have in their collection many relics and curiosities which will interest. As Forsyth county is, among other things, noted for its mineral wealth, Messrs. Fries' collection of mineral specimens, relics and curiosities will no doubt be peculiarly interesting to all. They will make an exhibit of manufactured goods, among which will be a full line of their celebrated woollen goods they will also exhibit various machinery, agricultural implements, &c. They inform Secretary Williams that they will bring about three car loads and will require sixty feet space at least, in which to show their collection. This will be the largest single exhibit that has ever been made in this State, and will place Forsyth largely in the lead of any other county.

This reflects great credit on Messrs. F. & H. Fries as energetic, public spirited, live business men, such as any county or state may well be proud of.—News and Observer.

President Arthur, the colored man's friend, who defended the colored men's rights before the war, says if he lived in North Carolina, he would vote the liberal ticket.



THE LEADING SCIENTISTS OF TO-DAY agree that most diseases are caused by disordered Kidneys or Liver. If, therefore, the Kidneys and Liver are kept in perfect order, perfect health will be the result. This truth has only been known a short time and for years people suffered great agony without being able to find relief. The discovery of Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure marks a new era in the treatment of these troubles. Made from a simple tropical leaf of rare value, it contains just the elements necessary to neutralize and invigorate both of these great organs, and safely restore and keep them in order. It is a POSITIVE remedy for all the diseases that cause pains in the lower part of the body—for pale Liver—Headache—Jaundice—Dizziness—Gravel—Fever—Ague—Malarial Fever, and all difficulties of the Kidneys, Liver and Urinary Organs.

It is an excellent and safe remedy for females during Pregnancy. It will control Menstruation and is invaluable for Leucorrhœa or Falling of the Womb.

As a Blood Purifier it is unequaled, for it cures the organs that make the blood.

This Remedy, which has done such wonders, is put up in the LARGEST SIZED BOTTLE of any medicine upon the market, and is sold by Druggists and all dealers at $1.25 per bottle. For Diabetes, enquire for WARNER'S SAFE DIABETES CURE. It is a POSITIVE REMEDY.

THE WILMINGTON POST.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

SUNDAY MORNING, OCT. 8, 1882.

Carteret County Republican Convention.

The Convention assembled at Beaufort, Wednesday, September 13, 1882.

The convention was called to order by Mr. Thomas Duncan, chairman of the County Executive Committee, and after some preliminary remarks, appointed a committee on credentials.

M. W. Branch, of Wilmington, being present, was requested to address the convention, and responded in a most appropriate manner, reviewing the tariff, public education, and the liberal party in contrast with the bourbon party. It was an able effort and well received.

At the conclusion of his remarks, Mr John T. B. Noe, was called upon and ably discussed the present county government system, being very often applauded.

The committee on credentials reported, showing a representation present from all the precincts in the county. The report was adopted.

The convention proceed to an election of permanent officers.

C. C. Bell was elected permanent chairman, J. B. Mann, assistant; S. A. Blount, secretary, and C. C. Hancock assistant secretary.

Mr. John Guthrie favored the convention with a few moments talk, which brought many applause.

The chairman stated that that the convention was ready for business.

S. A. Blount offered the following preamble and resolutions, which were unanimously adopted, amid great applause.

Whereas, The time has come for the people of North Carolina, regardless of party predelections, or political affiliations, to come together and throw off the yoke of parties and entrench themselves behind the bulwark of "government for the people and by the people," and

Whereas, The bourbon Democracy of our beloved but much abused state, have administered her laws to suit their own selfish ends, regardless of the rights, prosperity, happiness and general interest of the whole people, and have by their recent nominations indicated a strict adherance to the same old disloyalty to the people, to continue in unconstitutional abrogation of the rights of the people, the enunciation of the principles written as with an iron pen, in the constitution of the fathers of the republic, and made sacred by their blood, to the contrary, notwithstanding. Therefore be it

Resolved, That we, Republicans in delegated convention assembled, declare our allegiance to the constitution of the fathers and the rights of local self-government, the laws by the people and for the people.

2d. That we do heartily commend the efforts of the liberal party in this county and throughout the state to restore to the people all rights belonging to every citizen, regardless of his condition, be it ever so humble, and pledge them our patriotism, influence, energy and self-denial in the great work of reform.

3d. That we do heartily and with one accord endorse every nomination made by the liberal convention, which convened in Beaufort, this county, on the 12th of September, 1882, fully believing that the people of Carteret are represented by these nominations, therefore declare, inasmuch as the people of our dear old county will be represented by the nominees of the liberal convention it is unnecessary for this, the Republican convention, to make any nominations, and that we pledge them our immediate and udivided support.

4th. That inasmuch as the sheriff of our county comes in closer contact with the people and their interest, than the other officers, that we leave it to the people and commend the Republicans of this county to support that man of the people's choice, and as we do thoroughly understand that the present sheriff, and nominee of the bourbon democracy, is not in accord with the people as he should be, that we do not give him the support of the Republicans of Carteret county.

5th. That in the Hon. William P. Canaday, the people of Carteret county has a true friend, a son and a brother, whose desire to see the material interest of her citizens improved, which alone commend him to the united and earnest support of every citizen of Carteret county irrespective of party associations, to an election as Representative of the 48th Congress of this nation, where his energetic zeal and patriotism for the county of his birth, may be most displayed toward removing the many wants of our citizens, and we take pleasure in renewing our assurance of a united support to such a man, ever watchful of the true interest of the entire people, as is William P. Canaday, the liberal candidate for Congress from the 3d district.

The convention adjourned sine die.

C. C. Bell, Chm'n.

Duplin County Convention.

The Liberals of Duplin county met at the court house in the town of Kenansville, on the 29th of Sept. 1882, and nominated the following candidates

Senator—John C. McMillian.

House of Representatives — J. D. Cavenaugh.

Sheriff—B. L. Blackmoore.

Superior Court Clerk—Peter Corse gay.

Surveyor—Flaver Maxwell.

The offices of Register of Deeds and Coroner were left vacant to be filled at a future meeting.

The following resolutions were read and adopted:

Resolved, That we, the Executive Committee of the anti-prohibition, independent liberal movement, of Duplin county, congratulate the qualified voters of said county upon the fact that the time has arrived when the independent thinking part of the community are determined to speak and act for themselves politically, and not allow cliques and rings to control them in matters partaining to the ballot box in the future. We have already allowed ourselves too long to be imposed upon and dictated to by political tricksters and would-be masters. What has been the necessary result of such a state of things? First, men have been elevated to offices of public trust and emolument who could never attain to such positions by their personal merit and competency. Secondly, the best men of the county have been kept in the background because they could not conscientiously engage in the trickery and manipulations necessary to secure nominations at the hands of conventions run by the political wire-pullers; and as a consequence of all this, we have seen the sanctity of solemn oaths disregarded, the ballot box tampered with and men counted in who were never elected, odious and oppressive laws enacted, political trafic and barter carried on as though politics were an article of merchandise, constituitons trampled upon and changed against the expressed wish of the people; county governments imposed upon us, and a number of officers appointed by the rings generally, to rule over us, in whose appointment the people have about as much to do as the Irish tenantry have in the election of the English constabulary. The right of self-government in county matters has been denied to the people of North Carolina about as effectually as such things are denied to the serfs of Rusia. And this, as we understand, from the doctrines and teaching of the leaders of bourbonism, is put upon the ground that it is better that ninety-nine white men should be deprived of their liberty rather than one negro should have his personal liberty before the law. This doctrine, we as free men, are bound to resist and oppose; and we call upon the lovers of liberty everywhere, the patriots and friends of equal, and just laws to unite with us in demanding a a repeal of this odious system of county government and other kindred class legislation, and the enacting of such laws as shall bear equally upon all the citizens of the state, and which shall secure the greatest amount of personal liberty to all the good people of the state; and we call upon all the qualified voters of the state to unite with us in electing to the legislature such men only as are sober, good citizens, qualified both morally and mentally to discharge the high trust of law makers, and who are pledged to use their best efforts to secure the repeal of the odious and oppressive laws, and likewise to elect men to fill the county offices, so far as we have the power to do, under the present tyrannical system of county government, who are well recommended by their personal and meritorious attainments and conduct, and who do not regard the offices as belonging to them, but themselves as the servants of the people for the fees prescribed by law for such service, and who will not attempt to hold office for the age of Methuselah. We furthermore petition the ensuing General Assembly to pass an act reqiring county commissioners and justices of the peace to enter into good and reasonable bonds for the faithful discharge of their duties before being allowed to qualify. Also attorneys at law, who constitute themselves as collectors of claims, shall be required to give bond, and furthermore be deemed and held to be guilty of embezzlement for all forfeitures to pay over any moneys collected for their client; also that the General Assembly relieve us from the present burdensome law relating to retail dealers in wines and spirituous liquors. And while we declare ourselves friends of the education of both races, yet we repudiate associating the two races in the same schools.

Resolved, That we endorse the state liberal platform, and recommend the district and state coalition ticket.

Resolved, That we give our undivided strength to the support and election of our county ticket, and denounce all men and political parties as enemies to free government who would dare to question our franchises.

J. T. Howard, Chm'n,
Chas. H. Brown, Sec'y.

OFFICE HOLDERS vs. THE PEOPLE.

The campaign is being fought on the one side by office holders who are making a desperate fight to continue to suck at the public teat regardless of the wishes of the people; while on the other side the people, or those who have the moral courage, arraigned in favor of the public interest.

We find the following officers fighting against the people. Examine their names—they are old pigs yet they continue to fight for the teat.

The people have risen and they are fully determined to retrieve the state from this horde who have been so long feasting on the state. It will be seen that this crowd of suckers are drawing from the people upwards of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars per annum, and yet are not satisfied.—Adding to the amount paid to the 475 county commissioners, $20,500 more, will make $178,500 per annum paid out to these Bourbon officials to fight and to prevent the people getting back their right to govern themselves. The people are anxious for local self-government and are going to try very hard to whip out the Bourbon above named. It may be a hard fight, but the people will most certainly win if they will but stand up and make a bold manly fight.

PAYMENT OF SPECIAL TAX BONDS.

In their desperation the Bourbon leaders are endeavoring to impress upon the people that unless the Democrats are kept in power that the people will be compelled by enormous taxation to pay the special tax bonds.—This is the veriest bosh ever talked to sensible people. These bonds have been repudiated by the State in every conceivable manner and the state is prohibited by the following amendment to the constitution from ever paying them without a vote of the people to that effect:

"Nor shall the General Assemby assume or pay, or authorize the collection of any tax to pay, either directly or indirectly, expressed or implied, any debt or bond incurred, or issued, by authority of the convention of the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, nor any debt or bond, incurrred or issued by the Legislature of the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight either at its special session of the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, or at its regular sessions of the years one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight and one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine and one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine and one thousand eight hundred and seventy except the bonds issued to fund the interest on the old debt of the State unless the proposing to pay the same shall have first been submitted to the people and by them ratified by the vote of a majority of all the qualified voters of the State, at a regular election held for that purpose." —Section 6, Article I, Constitution of North Carolina.

The Supreme Court in the case against the city of Memphis, has decided that that court has no power to appoint officers for a State and compel them to levy and collect taxes to pay debts incurred by the State through its Legislature. So that there is no means by which the special tax bonds can be paid other than by amending the constitution or by a vote of the people authorizing the Legislature to pay said bonds. The attempt to deceive the people upon this point is based upon the idea that the people are arrant fools, or that they desire to be humbugged by Bourbon Democrats. The desperation of despair is upon the Bourbon leaders, otherwise they would not cling to such transparent demagoguery.—Raleigh Time.

THE WILMINGTON POST.

W. P. CANADAY, Proprietor.

WILMINGTON, N. C.,
SUNDAY MORNING, OCT. 8, 1882.

Six Ballot Boxes---Read and be Posted.

We extract the following from the Raleigh News and Observer. We presume that coming from such high authority in the bourbon party, that if the election is carried out in accordance with it that the bourbons will hardly dare, with all the effrontery peculiar to them, to dispute its fairness and regularity.

In time of peace prepare for war. Now before the election comes, it is well enough to understand how the voting should be done. There are two views in regard to it. Our own has been that the congressman at large should be voted for on the same ticket with the district congressman; but the better opinion appears to be the reverse, and that one box should be opened for the Bennett and Dockery, and another for the congressional candidates for the particular district.

It is not material so uniformity exists. The man who gets the greatest number of ballots will be seated, if the election be fair in all respects; and we have no doubt but what it will be fair in every particular.

* * * * *

This gives six ballot boxes as follows:

1. The representatives in congress at large will be voted for on one ballot.

2. The district representative in congress will be voted for on one ballot.

3 The Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, the six Judges of the Superior Courts, and the solicitor of the district will be voted for on one ballot.

4 The senator and members of the house of representatives will be voted for on one ballot.

5 The clerk of the superior court, treasurer (in counties having this officer), register of deeds, surveyor, coroner and sheriff will be voted for on one ballot.

6 The constable in each township will be voted for on one ballot.

These boxes for each precinct should be prepared by the proper officers, the commissioners, and furnished to the pollholders of each precinct. We trust that this will be done early, so that there may be no default through inadvertence. All of the preliminaries should be looked after with care and in ample time.

* * * * *

Every detail should be done exactly according to law. It will be noted that the proper name of our "representatives in congress" is just that. It is not congressmen, which for convenience sake we ourselves and others also generally use. The boxes should be marked for "Representatives in Congress," and the tickets also. There is no such office as "Congressman."

The Ball Rolls.

The liberals of Carteret assembled in the court house in Beaufort on the 12th of September last, and nominated a county ticket as follows: T D Hewett, of Newport, for the Lower House of the General Assembly; W J Doughty, for Superior Court Clerk. No nominations were made for Register of Deeds sheriff. J B Noe was nominated for coroner, and John D Guthrie for surveyor, after which stirring speeches were made by promiuent gentlemen.—Hon O Hubbs of Craven being present was loudly called for and responded happily; I never listened to a better speech in my life. It was the largest county convention of liberals I ever saw. After the speaking was over the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

We, the liberal Democrats in Carteret county in convention assembled, declare our unalterable faith in the doctrine of Thomas Jefferson.

We believe the people to be the rightful source of all political power, and the officers of government are their public servants. We view with distrust and alarm the tendency in every department to extravagance and corruption, induced by high salaries which excites the cupidity of the unscrupulous and destroys patriotism by fostering selfish ambition. We believe the government ought to be administered upon the principles of pure Democracy; that the people are capable of self-government, that every officer ought to be elected by the people, from the President down to constable, and if this is impracticable we ought to be honest with ourselves, and declare that Democracy, Republicanism and self government have been tested and failed, and that we are now ready to try some other experiment.

We congratulate the people of the state and nation upon the dawning of a new era in politics, and trust that a recurrence at this time to fundamental principles, may relieve us of farther complications, restore free government in its pristine purity, and save the country from disaster.

Whereas, Oppression was distasteful to the fathers of this country, and by their valor and bravery, came from under the flag of oppression; and

Whereas, Now as then, the people are as brave defenders of the rights of the people as our fathers,

Resolved, That we, in the selection of candidates to fill the various positions for the service of the people, select the people's choice and not the choice of a favored few; and

Whereas, The Hon. William P. Canaday is and has always been a representative of the people, and having come from them, and saw the light of heaven for the time first in this, our county of Carteret,

Resolved, That in the sense of this convention, composed of the people, regardless of party affiliation, that the Hon. William P. Canaday is the choice of this county as congressman to represent this district in the 48th congress of the United States.

The convention then adjourned amid three cheers for the entire state and congressional liberal ticket.

There were about 250 liberal Democrats in the convention. It was a proud day for old Carteret.

CORRESPONDENT.

A Few Words to the Laboring White Men of the Country who Never Owned a Negro.

Did you know gentlemen, that these bourbon Democrats, who denounced it as a crime to vote with the negro, and who ostracise as far as they can, every man, who votes with the Republican party, held their negroes and made use of them for sectional and political purposes before freedom? Do you know that these negro slaves, uneducated and without the privilege of expressing a political opinion at all, were used as voters in Federal representation? Do you know three in every five negro slaves, were included in the enumeration of free persons, and according to this enumeration, each state was entitled to her representatives in congress?

Did you know that while these negro slaves were thus held and enjoyed by their masters, as a living, active and effective political power, you were denied the privilege of voting for the Senators of your state unless you owned a few acres of land? Did you know in the days of African slavery, you had to work on public roads, every one of you to the last male child on your premises, between the ages of 18 and 45 years, while these lords of creation were allowed, not by law, but arbitrarily, to send a portion of their slaves of that age, for that purpose, retaining or keeping quite a sufficient number at home for all practical purposes and to render them comfortable during the absence of those required to work on the roads? Do you not know that the roads were neglected and mere blind paths in many instances, were substituted for them, for ages, rather than offend these lords of creation by pressing the slaves into public service? But what is the condition of things now, since the negroes are no longer slaves, and they can no longer use them at will? Do you not know they have increased the number of roads at least seventy-five per cent, ditched and bridged them in many instances; where the roads run parallel with the overseer's lands, the overseer having absolute control, have made them do extra and superabundant labor for his personal benefit; and of course the laboring white men on such roads have been made to suffer proportionally with the negro in such cases, and yet they are so blind and deaf to self-respect as to remain the "Tertium Quids" of society glad to be recognized by these gentlemen in election times, who mingle freely and drink lager beer with them during a campaign, but after the struggle is over return to their homes to chuckle over and ridicule their simplicity and want of penatration to discover the object and purpose of this brief condescendsion.

Gentlemen, you the bone and sinew of the country, can you tolerate in a party or set men, what you would hold one man personally responsible for? Are you so tied hand and foot to party as to allow a certain would be big man to insult, drive and use you against your own interest, whenever they feel disposed to do so? But they say you are voting with the negro party. Which is worse, to conduct yourself as gentlemen and vote for principles regardless such nonsensical clamor, or vote and associate with men who are keeping negro women, though they have good and pure white ladies for wives? Why some of the Democratic appointees to magisterial power, who figure to the front in all of their public demonstrations, are living in open and known fornication and adultery with negro women, and you hear nothing said against them, as unfit to be associated with. Oh, no! that would not do, they are immaculate. They wear the mantle of Democracy, which is amply sufficient to hide all enormities and diseases. Charity it is said covereth all thing, but Democracy covereth charity. Suppose a white Republican were to be found in such a connection as this. Don't you know that it would brand and damn him to all eternity? Do you know one who is living such a life? If so, give us his name, and we will nail him to the counter as counterfeit. Then away with your foolish and ridiculous cry of social equality against gentlemen, who think proper (because, as a matter of principle the they feel obliged to do it) to vote with the Republican party; men who never ate with, slept with, nor drank a drop of ardent spirits with a negro in their lives; and yet this miserable and dishonest charge is still on hand as a means to deceive and drive men into error and wrong, who unconsciously are riveting the chains of slavery—yes, worse than serfdom—on the arms and feet of dear little children yet unborn. But go on, vote with them, poor men, because they tell you they would compel you to work for the prices that are given from the hands of opulence and power to the down trodden pauper of Great Britain, if they could. Vote with them because they would take off the tax on imported goods that their sons and daughters might be clad in costly and princely apparel, and make you pay that tax to support this government.—Vote with them because they make you pay a tax for the benefit and enrichment of the lordly capitalists and manufacturers of the various European and Oriental powers. Vote with them because their policy is to rob you step by step of every means of natural defence, and when powerless and no hope of escape from their aggravated and combined system of robbery and ruin you will tamely submit to the iron heel of worse than cruel despotism, because they will tell you this is the fruit of being a true Democrat—this is the blessing of Democratic freedom. Vote with them because their history is written in blood which cries up from the earth against them, marking and distinguishing them as the authors of every social, state and national misfortune which has ever cursed you as a people. Vote with them, because under the mockery of supporting and protecting you, they have been and are your dealiest enemies. Vote with them, because the reputation and bright record of the immortal architect of this great government was assailed by them, and the effort made to efface them forever from the archives of the country. Vote with them, because holding as they do the sentiment that party is superior to government and country, they would plunder in their desolating progress, the last hope of freemen, denying the right to exercise the dearest privilege of an American citizen, to-wit: to vote according to the dictates of a free and an enlightened conscience. Vote with them because they have virtually said to the world that you are not capable of self-government; and should not be free, and as far as they could do it, have taken away your right to select the officers of your county government.

Respectfully, SAM.

A mass convention of the Republican and liberal anti-prohibition parties met pursuant to a call, at Clinton, on Saturday September 9th, 1882.

The convention was called to order by J E Barden, chairman of the liberal committee, who called Mr Clifton Ward to the chair, and requested W P Wemyss to act as secretary.

A committee of five was appointed on permanent organization, who reported Clifton Ward as permanent chairman and W P Wemyss as secretary.

W P Wemyss, Calton Sessoms, Green Herring, Simon Ezzell and Owen Monk was appointed a committee on resolutions, who reported the following:

WHEREAS, The people of Sampson county having experienced the evils of the present system of county government, and having seen the failure of the present ruling party to rectify the errors so much complained of, whereby county commissioners, school committeemen and other county officials are appointed instead of being directly elected by the people in accordance with the time honored principles of the Democratic party.

AND WHEREAS, We see no chance of improving the condition of affairs within the present party organization; therefore be it

Resolved, That we nominate and pledge our support to the following named gentlemen for county officers, and also pledge our undivided support to the liberal anti-prohibition state ticket: For the Senate, John Barden; for the House of Representatives, Henry O Monk and John R Smith; for Superior Court Clerk, Wm P Wemyss; for Register of Deeds, D A Cooper, and we more particularly pledge ourselves to the support of W P Canaday, the liberal Republican nominee of the 3rd congressional district, which was adopted.

The executive committee was instructed to fill any vacancies on the ticket.

E H King of Wilmington then addressed the convention in a forcible and stiring speech, after which the meeting adjourned.

W P Wemyss, Secretary.

Board of County Commissioners.

The Board of County Commissioners met in regular monthly session at 2:30 o'clock on Monday last. Present, H A Bagg, chairman, and Commissioners Worth, Moore, Montgomery and Pearce.

The Treasurer submitted his report for the month of September. General fund, showing balance on hand, $19,937 53; special fund, showing balance due Treasurer, $457 87, and exhibited 15 coupons of the denomination of $15 each and 30 coupons of $2 each, which were destroyed in the presence of the Board. Educational fund showing balance on hand, $9,930 10.

The Register submitted his monthly report for September, showing fees from marriage licenses to be $19, an exhibited Treasurer's receipts for the same.

Application of A B Cook to have Roderick McRae appointed as special surveyor to survey a piece of land in this city was granted.

Application of John H Davis to have his assessment reduced from $350 to $100 was granted.

Application of Robert W Lamb for remission of double tax was granted under the provision that the tax be paid within 30 days.

It was ordered by the Board that L Brown be allowed to list $2000 solvent credits.

The estate of John Brown, in Cape Fear township, was relieved of double tax.

Mrs Julia Anthony was relieved of double tax.

The assessment on the estate of John T Schoswald, in Cape Fear township, was reduced from $200 to $300.

Board adjourned.

A FREE VOTE AND FAIR COUNT.

Let every man who has not read and remember this, that the United States protects him by law in his right to vote as evidenced by the following extracts from the U. S. revised statutes.

By section 5,512, revised statutes of the United States, among other things it is provided that:

"If, at any registration of voters for an election for representative or delegate in the congress of the United States, any person * * * by force, threat, menace, intimidation, bribery, reward, or offer, or promise thereof, or other unlawful means, prevents or hinders any person having a lawful right to register from duly exercising such right, * * * he shall be punished by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment not more than three years, or by both, and shall pay the costs of the prosecution."

This section of the law is cognate to section 5,506, but is more specific in its provisions, and is in language broad enough to cover any interference with the right of a voter to register, either by offers of a voter to register, either by offers or promises of reward, or threats of violence or any punishment whatever.

But the law not only decrees as a criminal act any unwarranted intermeddling whereby a man is prevented or hindered from registering, or otherwise qualifying himself to vote, but gives to the injured party a right of action against the wrongdoer for damages, to be recovered in the Circuit Court of the United States.

Section 1,980 of the revised statutes provides:

"If two or more persons conspire to prevent by force, intimidation, or threat, any citizen who is lawfully entitled to vote, from giving his support or advocacy in a legal manner, toward or in favor of the election of any lawfully qualified person as an elector for President or Vice-President, or as a member of Congress of the United States; or to injure any citizen in person or property on account of such support or advocacy, * * * the party so injured or deprived may have an action for the recovery of damages, occasioned by such injury or deprivation, against any one or more of the conspirators."

The section next following, 1,981 gives a like remedy against every person or parsons, who, having knowledge that any of the injuries specified in section 1,980, are about to be committed, and who having power to prevent, or aid in preventing the commission of the same, neglects or refuses to do so.

Again by section 2,005 revised statutes, it is provided that:

"When, under the constitution or laws of any state, or the laws of any territory, any act is required to be done as a prerequisite or qualification for voting, and by such constitution or laws persons or officers are charged with the duty of furnishing to citizens an opportunity to perform such prerequisite, or to become qualified to vote, every such person or officer shall give to all citizens of the United States the same and equal opportunity to perform such prerequisite and to become qualified to vote."

And by section 2,006, that:

"Every person or officer charged with the duty specified in the preceding section, who refuses or knowingly omits to give full effect to that section, shall forfeit the sum of five hundred dollars to the party aggrieved by such refusal or omission, to be recovered by an action on the case, with costs, and such allowance for counsel fees as the court may deem just."

The right to register, and to vote, and to advocate, even, the election of a candidate are regarded by the law, as is evident from the foregoing provisions as rights of property, for an injury to which the citizen may be compensated in damages.

In view, and because of the harm resulting to the common weal by the prevention or suppression of a free vote in the selection of officers to fill places of public trust, the law denounces them as high crimes, and inflicts upon the perpetrators thereof heavy penalties.

Because the right to have a voice in the choice of public agents or servants, is a necessary and high privilege, the laws gives a right to sue for damages any person who is guilty of an infraction thereof, just as it furnishes a remedy for any other violation of rights of property; and in some cases the damages are fixed at five hundred dollars, and in others the amount is left to the discretion of the jury.

Let the people take due notice of these provisions of the law, and govern themselves accordingly.

CARTHAGE, N. C., Sept. 12, '82.

DEAR POST:—The committeemen of the convention on Saturday the 9th endorsed the following gentlemen viz:

For the Senate, from Moore and Randolph counties, S H Buchanan.

For the Lower House of the General Assembly, J A Barrett.

For Sheriff, W M Black.

For Register of Deeds, T W Ritter.

For Clerk of Superior Court A H McNiell.

Committeemen, E B Kelly, Edwin Phillips, Arch'd Morrison, Mason Gains, Lucian Thompson, Morrice Marcuson, Elvin Buchanan D A Evans Chas Hadley, Thompson Devane, Chas Bize and Morrice Sloan.
